DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 28 March 2007 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions - Restriction Requirement

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, 10- 16, 28, and 29, drawn to a trim accessory, classified in class 52, subclass 717.05.
- II. Claim 17-21, drawn to a trim system, classified in class 52, subclass 95.
- III. Claims 22-26, drawn to a method of installing a trim system, classified in class 52, subclass 747.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I/II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case, the claimed product can be utilized along interior or exterior corners of a room or along the exterior vertical corner of a dwelling and without having to hide any apertures while installing. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the claimed combination does not require a soffit receiver component having an attachment edge portion, a bottom portion, and connecting portion forming a channel or does not require a siding panel receiver component having two channels. The subcombination has separate utility such as the claimed subcombination can be utilized along interior or exterior corners of a room or along the exterior vertical corner of a dwelling.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification and require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Election/Restrictions - Election of Species Requirement

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

SPECIES I - Figs. 1 and 2;

SPECIES II - Figs. 3 and 4;

SPECIES III - Fig. 5;

SPECIES IV- Fig. 6;

SPECIES V - Fig. 7;

OR

SPECIES VI - Fig. 8.

The species are independent or distinct because:

SPECIES I (i.e., Figs. 1 and 2) discloses trim accessory (100) which requires siding accessory (37) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building (as shown in Fig. 2);

SPECIES II (i.e., Fig. 3 and 4) discloses trim accessory (200) which requires siding accessory (37) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building (a shown in Fig. 4);

SPECIES III (i.e., Fig. 5) discloses trim accessory (100) which does not require a siding accessory (37) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building;

SPECIES IV (i.e., Fig. 6) discloses trim accessory (200) which does not require a siding accessory (37) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building;

SPECIES V (i.e., Fig. 7) discloses trim accessory (300) which has a built-in siding accessory (340) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building; and SPECIES VI (i.e., Fig. 8) discloses trim accessory (400) which has a built-in siding accessory (440) to mount a siding panel (36) to the exterior of a building.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, independent claim 8 appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

A telephone call to Applicants to request an oral election to the above Restriction Requirement and Election of Species Requirement was not made due to the complexity of the election.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
